

Tapping into the Emerging Green Economy: Green Economic Development Strategies for Community and Brownfield Redevelopment

July 21, 2009

8:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Keep Indianapolis Beautiful Offices
1029 Fletcher Avenue, Suite 100 Indianapolis, IN

A 1-day workshop for planners, economic development professionals, non-profit organizations, businesses, consultants & elected officials to explore the emerging green economy.

WORKSHOP AGENDA

8:00 - 8:30 AM	Registration & Coffee/Breakfast
8:30 – 8:45 AM	Welcome – City of Indianapolis Office of Sustainability
8:45 - 10:00 AM	Green Reuse Strategies – Delta Redevelopment Institute
10:15 – 11:30 AM	Marketing & Information Resources for Green Businesses
11:30 - 12:30 PM	Lunch- Guest Speaker
12:30 – 2:00PM	Incentives & Recognition Programs for Green Business
2:15 – 3:30 PM	Getting Brownfield Sites Ready for Green Businesses
3:45 PM	Closing Remarks

Registration $25 for Non-profit & Government employees
(includes lunch): $40 for Private Business and Other sectors

Email Vanessa at vroanhorse@delta-institute.org to register

Sponsored by:

- The City of Indianapolis Office of Sustainability and Economic Development Brownfield office
- The Delta Redevelopment Institute
- Indiana Association of Community Economic Development (IACED)
- Indiana Finance Authority (IFA)
- Ball State - College of Architecture and Planning